

Questions to Ask on Your Babymoon

What are you most looking forward to about becoming a parent?

What are some of your best childhood memories?

What is something you would like to incorporate from your childhood?

What is something you want to do differently than your childhood experience?

What traits do you admire about your own mom and dad?

What drove you insane about your own parents growing up?

What makes you nervous about becoming a parent?

What is our game plan for being able to communicate our needs and frustrations when the baby is here?

In what ways do you think I will make a good parent?

What physical trait of mine do you hope our baby has?

What physical trait of yours do you hope our baby has?

What personality trait of mine do you hope our baby has?

What personality trait of yours do you hope our baby has?

How do you envision us splitting parenting and household duties?

What type of hobbies or activities do you want to teach our baby?

What three words do you hope people use to describe our child?

What are some ideas you have to ensure our marriage stays a priority?

the new wifestyle♥